SILENT CONVERSATION

11 May – 5 June 2021

Ikastikos Kiklos DL presents for the first time the twin exhibition of young artists Elena Antonopoulou and Dimitris Petrolekas. The two artists present wall-mounted, mainly small-scale works dominated by the use of photography and black-and-white. In her text on the exhibition, art historian Assimina Kaniari notes: "The portraits of Antonopoulou are images of real persons that inhabit the world of fiction as an extension of art and visual narrative into the new dimension of the contemporary artwork, just like the landscapes of Petrolekas, and invite us to talk with them in the language induced by their artistic atmosphere, the atmosphere of dark clothes and the monochrome film, silently."

Exhibition opening: Friday 1 November 2019 at 20:00

Opening hours: Monday closed
Wednesday - Saturday 11:00 - 16:00
